NCE PROMOTES SRI LANKAN EXPORTERS TO SET SIGHTS ON INDIA'S EXPANDING MARKET

Sri Lankan exporters invited to join business delegation to New Delhi and Mumbai from September 24 to October 01, 2026

Sri Lankan businesses are being presented with a timely opportunity to deepen their presence in one of the region's largest and fastest-growing markets, as the National Chamber of Exporters of Sri Lanka (NCE) prepares to lead an exporters' delegation to New Delhi and Mumbai from September 24 to October 1, 2026.

The initiative is aimed at established exporters, manufacturers, SMEs, aspiring exporters and businesses seeking new partnerships and investment opportunities in India. With bilateral trade gaining momentum, the delegation is expected to provide participants with direct access to Indian buyers, distributors, investors and industry representatives.

India has long been an important trading partner for Sri Lanka, but recent export figures point to growing potential. Sri Lanka's exports to India rose 17.2 percent in 2025 to approximately US$1.04 billion, compared with US$881.6 million in 2024. The upward trend has continued into 2026, with exports reaching US$688.47 million during the first six months, representing a 36.16 percent increase over the corresponding period.

With a population exceeding 1.4 billion and a rapidly expanding consumer and industrial economy, India offers opportunities across a wide range of sectors. Sri Lankan products such as tea, rubber and rubber-based goods, coconut products, spices, apparel, food and beverages, gems and jewellery, and electrical and electronic products have potential in the market. Services, including ICT, business process management and logistics, also offer avenues for expansion.

Importantly, the opportunities extend beyond conventional exports. Sri Lankan companies can explore joint ventures, contract manufacturing, distribution arrangements, technology partnerships and investment opportunities, while also seeking integration into Indian and wider regional supply chains.

LEVERAGING THE FREE TRADE AGREEMENT

The India-Sri Lanka Free Trade Agreement (ISFTA) remains an important advantage for Sri Lankan exporters. In 2025, around US$634 million, or 61.3 percent of Sri Lanka's exports to India, were conducted under the preferential framework of the agreement.

As both governments continue discussions aimed at strengthening economic and trade relations and improving market access, the NCE believes the current environment presents an ideal opportunity for businesses to engage with India more directly.

A major strength of the upcoming delegation is its network of established Indian chamber partnerships. In New Delhi, Sri Lankan participants will engage with the Federation of Indian Export Organisations (FIEO) and the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI). In Mumbai, meetings will be facilitated through the Maharashtra Chamber of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture (MACCIA), All India Association of Industries (AIAI) and International Chamber of Investment and Business (ICIB).

These organisations are expected to facilitate business-to-business meetings, allowing Sri Lankan companies to connect directly with prospective buyers, importers, distributors, investors and strategic partners.

The programme is further supported by the Sri Lankan High Commission in New Delhi and the Consulate General of Sri Lanka in Mumbai, with trade officials assisting participants in engaging with the Indian business community.

For SMEs and emerging exporters in particular, entering India can be challenging without reliable contacts and an understanding of market requirements. The NCE delegation offers a structured route to overcome these barriers by combining market exposure with direct business engagement.

Rather than simply observing the Indian market from afar, participating companies will have an opportunity to identify demand, develop commercial relationships and explore practical avenues for expansion.

As Sri Lanka seeks to diversify and strengthen its export base, India could become an increasingly important destination. The NCE delegation therefore offers businesses an opportunity not only to explore a vast market, but also to build partnerships that could shape their next phase of growth.

Strategic Engagements

FITIS signs a Memorandum of Understanding with NCE

The Federation of Information Technology Industry Sri Lanka (FITIS) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with NCE on the 25th of August 2026.

This MoU was signed in an effort to strengthen Sri Lanka's export ecosystem through technology adoption, digital transformation, innovation, business connectivity, capacity building, and policy advocacy.

The signing was led by Mr. Indhra Kaushal Rajapaksa, President of NCE and Dr. Dayan Rajapakse, Chairman of FITIS at the NCE premises, marking an initial step in the direction of success.

NCE Marks an Important Milestone by Entering into a Strategic Partnership with Prime Group

The strategic partnership between the NCE and Real Leader in Modern Real Estate Prime Group marks a pivotal milestone for Sri Lanka's business ecosystem. With over 30 years at the forefront of Sri Lanka's real estate sector, Prime Lands has grown from a pioneering real estate company into one of the country's most recognized and formidable names in property, with an extensive portfolio and a strong presence across the island. By bridging the gap between commercial development, real estate investment and export growth, this collaboration provides exporters with tailored property solutions, modern infrastructure and strategic real estate options essential for scaling operational capacities.

Additionally, the alliance creates high-yield investment opportunities aimed at attracting foreign direct investment (FDI) and engaging with networks of Sri Lankans overseas tied to the local export economy. By uniting Prime Lands' three decades of industry leadership, extensive market reach and proven expertise in real estate with the NCE's extensive trade network, the partnership fosters institutional synergy, driving long-term and sustainable growth for Sri Lankan enterprises.

The partnership further reinforces Prime Lands' position as a significant force in Sri Lanka's real estate landscape, while opening new avenues for the country's export community to access property and investment opportunities backed by a trusted and established industry leader.

NCE featured in Media

The key areas affecting export growth were discussed during NCE meetings with various professionals. During the month of August, NCE published articles on many topics, while NCE was also featured in the media for its achievements and mobilization of exporters to find new market opportunities.

During the Northern Province Regional Delegation, new products were identified, and exporters were put in contact with producers from the northern region while discussing bottlenecks in expanding the export sector to the region.

In other meetings, the labour shortage was discussed and deemed to need urgent attention. The NCE brought this urgent request to policymakers, noting that exporters are deeply concerned about the matter.

Further encouraging our exporters, the most celebrated achievement, Sri Lanka's USD 10 billion export milestone, was commended by NCE, showing further support to expand the horizons for Sri Lankan exports. Seizing the momentum, NCE is also organizing a business delegation to India in September 2026 for market expansion and to form new partnerships for Sri Lankan exporters with the supportive neighbour.

NCE to lead exporters' delegation to India to unlock new market opportunities

The National Chamber of Exporters of Sri Lanka (NCE) is inviting the exporters, manufacturers, aspiring exporters and other businesses interested in expanding into the Indian market to join an overseas exporters' delegation to New Delhi and Mumbai, from September 24 to October 01, 2026.
